

CALL OF DUTY - New Computer Game

This project was run in conjunction with various other forms of media to increase awareness for the launch of the war game “Call Of Duty”. It consisted of various 3D and 2D elements. The large wall was hand sculptured from HD Foam and painted in a distressed fashion to achieve the desired effect. Once constructed additional “mood” lighting was added to increase the feeling of war.

